

Lindsey Kovach Bio – 200 Words

Lindsey Kovach is a professional flutist and music educator. Based in Tallahassee, Florida, she is pursuing her master's degree in Flute Performance at Florida State University (FSU), where she studies with Dr. Karen Large and Dr. Mary Matthews. As a Graduate Teaching Assistant, Lindsey teaches applied flute lessons, directs the Flute Ensemble, and assists with woodwind methods and administrative duties. She also serves as President of the Flute Association at FSU.

An accomplished performer, Lindsey has held principal flute positions with the FSU Symphony Orchestra and Wind Orchestra. She has been recognized with the prestigious Patsy Drury Hejl Scholarship for Outstanding Musical Achievement for her expressive artistry and musicianship. Lindsey has performed in masterclasses with renowned flutists and participated in esteemed programs like The Consummate Flutist and Beyond the Masterclass. Recent achievements include winning the 2024 Florida Flute Association's Advanced Masterclass Competition and performing Mozart's Flute and Harp Concerto in a series of school performances in Thomasville, Georgia.

As a founding member of the Flute and Percussion Duo 38 and the Cascade Wind Quintet, Lindsey is passionate about commissioning and performing new music. With extensive teaching experience and a commitment to inclusivity, she continues to inspire students and audiences through her innovative approach to music and education.